On December 1, Miss Louise Scruggs, Christmas Seal Sale chairman for Appomattox county, for the Virginia Tuberculosis Association, and her co-workers throughout the county, will initiate the local campaign for funds for the forthcoming year's fight on tuberculosis. Letters in which are enclosed the attractive seals bearing a direct message of Humanity in consmeration of the birth of the New Born King, are being sent throughout the community. This appeal is made for the sake of those who have become victims to one of the most dreadful diseases of mankind-- tuberculosis, as well as for the protection of our children from this malady.

The proceeds from this campaign will be used to care for the medical expenses of the sufferers of tuberculosis who otherwise would be unable to receive treatment. It also looks to prevention through providing nutrition and free clinical requirements for needy persons, and a never-ending educational program of tuberculosis prevention.

In providing yourself with seals for your Christmas cards and packages, you are not only making gifts and messages of cheer more attractive, but also doing for yourself and this community a useful and humane service.

Local Battery Plant Adds Force to Fill Record Orders

Had Banquet For Local Football Team

An all-time record for "speech-making" was set here Tuesday night when a group of local business men climbed in to give a banquet to the football team of the high school and to departing coach Charles Hill.

Toastmaster W. M. Abbitt called on each one present for a few remarks, and thus in a hour and a half there were forty-six speeches. The program was topped off with short addresses by superintendent J. A. Burke and the Rev. R. E. Redding.

The letter-winners on the squad elected Guy Cabell to be captain of next year's team, and designated professor Joe O'Brien to act with the captain in arranging a schedule for next year. The team presented a gift to Coach Hill.

The banquet was served in the cafeteria room of the new school, by the school's home economics department, under the direction of Miss Mary Morgan. It was a bountiful turkey dinner with all the trimmings! The list of sponsors of the banquet included: W.M. Abbitt, C. F. Crawley, J. C. Caldwell, John Booth, Joe O'Brien, P.S. Drinkard, R. M. Mann, D. A. Conner, C. H. Robinson, J. A. Burke, Professor L. Crawley, Richard Floyd Burke, C. H. Swing, R. E. Redding, L. E. Sears, B. G. Anderson, Chas. F. Jones, A. B. Hardwood Jr. and G.F. Norfolk & Western In Handling Increased Traffic

The sudden demahd upon the Norfolk and Western, railway to handle an unprecendented increase in freight traffic, as a result of the recent upsurge in the nation's commerce, has been met without car shortage, delay, or congestion, the company declared in a statement issued today.

The statement revealed that in October, 5,329 carloads of revenue freight were loaded on the railroad in a single day...an all-time record, and a 56 per cent increase over the average day of three months before.

Five times in a few short weeks, according to the railroad, the N. & W. was called upon to provide more equipment and service to move coal than ever before in the history of the Norfolk and Western. In October, the N. & W. loaded more coal in one day- 4,265 cars; more in one week-22,706 cars and more in one month- 97,140 cars, than in any like periods since the railway built into the coal fields 56 years ago.

The statement pointed out that "this achievement was made possible by experienced, loyal personnel, by cooperation of shippers and receivers, and by the railway's policy of expanding and improving its facilities and services in boom times and in depression. Today, the Norfolk and Western is rolling-- and ready for more- with plenty of capacity in reserve."

The railroad asserted that "again the Norfolk and Western Railway, and other railroads of the country, have proven conclusively that they can do the nation's transportation job better than any other agency- no matter what may come-- and that they are vital to the economic progress and welfare of America."

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of my dear Mother, Mrs. Elmira D. Glover, who departed this life six years ago, December 2, 1933--

Just a tribute of love and remembrance,

To one I will never forget,

Her absence to me is a sorrow,

Her loss I will always regret.

Deep in my heart lies a picture

Of a loved one gone to rest,

It memories frame I shall keep it,

Because she was one of the best.

I loved her, yes, I lovef her,

But Jesus loved her more,

And He has sweetly called her,

To yonder's peaceful shore.
